

THE BOND ACADEMY: UPLIFTING OUR KIDS, OUR CULTURE, & OUR CRAFT

SATURDAY, APRIL 21, 2018
9:00 A.M. – 1:00 P.M.

Come be a part of the inaugural professional learning conference from The BOND Project!

The BOND Academy will feature powerful presentations and discussions on instructional strategies, career advancement, community building, and cultural proficiency, primarily through the lens of male educators of color. Continental breakfast, coffee, and conversation begin at 8:30 a.m., with event activities starting at 9 a.m.

Practitioners at every level of education (teachers, counselors, para-educators, administrators, central office staff, student teachers) are welcome, as well as community leaders, Board of Education members, and elected officials. The event also features partners from Howard University and other organizations.

Use the link below to RSVP:

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/bond-academy-pdx-on-kids-culture-and-the-craft-tickets-43298324454>

Featuring Workshops by...

2016 MCPS Greenblatt
Teacher of the Year
Michael Williams

MCPS Director of Public
Information
Derek Turner

Plenary Address by...

2018 MCPS Washington
Post Teacher of the Year

Kenneth M. Smith, NBCT

THE INAUGURAL BOND ACADEMY

Argyle Middle School
2400 Bel Pre Rd.
Silver Spring, MD 20906

www.bondeducators.org

@BONDEducators